NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME (NSS)

Aims and Objectives

As the third component of education, the NSS is a part of our academic, social, and personal lives. It enables students to actively offer their time and talents to the betterment of their society and country, thereby assisting in the development of their personalities. As a result, the NSS provides the ideal venue for students and youth across the country to become involved in real-life social activities and, as a result, become responsible citizens of India.

Motto of NSS

“NOT ME BUT YOU”

The Motto

This embodies the essence of democratic living and emphasizes the importance of unselfish service, respect for the other's point of view, and consideration for fellow humans. It emphasizes that an individual's well-being is ultimately dependent on the well-being of society as a whole. As a result, the NSS should make it a goal to live up to this philosophy in its daily activities.

The NSS Symbol

The National Service Scheme's symbol, which appears on the cover page, is based on the chariot wheel of Odisha's Konark Sun Temple. The Sun Temple's massive wheels represent the cycle of creation, preservation, and release, as well as the movement of life across time and space. The symbol's design, a simplified version of the sun-chariot wheel, emphasizes movement. The wheel represents life's ever-increasing cycle. It represents both continuity and change, implying the NSS's ongoing commitment to societal development and advancement.

Objectives

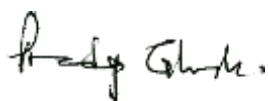

The broad objectives of the NSS are to:

- (i) Understand the community in which the students work.
- (ii) Understand themselves about their community.
- (iii) Develop among themselves a sense of social and civic responsibility.
- (iv) Identify the needs and problems of the community and involve them in the solution of problems.
- (v) Utilize their knowledge in finding practical solutions to individual and community problems.
- (vi) Develop competence required for collective existence and sharing of responsibilities.

- (vii) Gain skills in mobilizing community participation.
- (viii) Acquire leadership qualities and a democratic attitude.
- (ix) Develop capacity to meet emergencies and natural disasters.
- (x) Practice national integration and social harmony.

NSS Wing of MCC

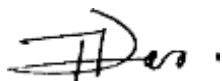

The NSS wing of MCC comprises one units, 100 volunteers. Among one unit. We NSS wing of MCC organized Regular and Special Camping activities. The volunteers are trained for a social platform to realize their responsibilities in bringing a mightier India and to train others in key objectives of NSS. Road Safety Awareness Camp

The Road Safety Awareness Camp organized by the NSS Unit of Midnapore City College in collaboration with the Debra Traffic Police was successfully conducted on the 30th of January 2024. The primary objective of the camp was to promote awareness about road safety measures among the community members, especially students and local residents. The event commenced with an inaugural ceremony where representatives from both the NSS Unit and the Debra Traffic Police emphasized the importance of adhering to traffic rules and regulations. They highlighted the alarming statistics of road accidents and the need for collective efforts to mitigate them through responsible driving practices. Various activities were organized throughout the day to engage participants actively. These included: Informative sessions were conducted to educate participants about traffic signs, signals, and safe driving techniques. Practical demonstrations were held to showcase the proper usage of safety gear such as helmets and seat belts. NSS volunteers performed street plays and skits that portrayed real-life scenarios to illustrate the consequences of reckless driving and the benefits of following traffic rules. Furthermore, the Debra Traffic Police provided demonstrations on the correct method of using pedestrian crossings and the importance of maintaining vehicle fitness and documentation. The camp attracted a diverse audience, including college students, faculty members, and local residents. Participants actively participated in the discussions and activities, demonstrating their enthusiasm for learning and promoting road safety. The concluding session included a pledge-taking ceremony where attendees committed to practicing safe driving habits and spreading awareness among their peers and families. Overall, the Road Safety Awareness Camp was a resounding success, thanks to the collaborative efforts of the NSS Unit of Midnapore City College and the Debra Traffic Police. The camp not only educated participants about road safety but also instilled a sense of responsibility towards creating safer roads in our community. We extend our gratitude to all participants, organizers, and supporters who contributed to making this event impactful and memorable.
